Accommodation

- All bedrooms are en suite
- There are only a few single rooms. Please consider sharing if at all possible in order to make the best use of the rooms available
- There are several family rooms available.
- There is some very good overflow accommodation available in nearby guest houses approved by Glenada. We recognise that this would not suit everyone but if you would be willing and able to stay out in the event of Glenada being over-subscribed, please indicate on the form.
- Accommodation may also be available in the adjoining Disabled Christian Fellowship premises for those requiring specialist care.

Notes

- Please bring your Bible, Psalter and a notebook.
- A bookstall will be provided by RPC Bookshop.
- Families are welcome. A children's programme will run during the main conference talks.
- Parents of children under 3 may be asked to take part in a crèche rota.

Evangelism

In Christian circles today we hear a lot about "Mission", but what does "Mission" mean in practice? Some Christians find the very word frightening – "Have I got to preach on the street corner?" The Bible has a wonderful way of introducing gospel mission to us – it tells us the story of Jesus' mission, the way he went about it, the way he spoke to ordinary people, and the promises he made to his followers in all ages. John Nicholls will be looking at those familiar stories from the gospels and showing how they can transform and empower our mission as churches and individuals in the 21st century.
